

Create an Online Fundraiser for Giving Tuesday

Thank you for your interest in creating an online fundraiser to benefit The EHE Foundation during our 2023 Giving Tuesday campaign. We appreciate your passion, time, and efforts on behalf of the EHE patient community and hope that your fundraiser is a great success! If this simple guide does not answer your questions, feel free to contact LeeAnn at leeannconner@fightehe.org.

Step 1: Create an account. Click here to get started. Enter your First and last name, email, and password. Don't forget to save your password.

By creating an account, you hereby agree to Give Lively's Terms of Use and Privacy Policy.

or log in to an existing account

How This Works:

- ✓ You create (or log in to) your Give Lively account. Give Lively is the technology that powers this fundraising platform.
- ✓ You go through the steps to create your individual Peer-to-Peer Fundraising page. You can customize your page with your picture, a message to your network and more.
- ✓ You start fundraising! Once your page is ready, share it via email, text and social with your family, friends, colleagues and the world.

Step 2: Confirm your email. Log into your email account and click the link to confirm your email.

Step 3: Personalize your page. Upload a profile image, add a note, set your fundraising goal, and pick an image for the right side of your page. You can even add a video! Here's an example of a compelling EHE story:

I was diagnosed with this one-in-a-million rare cancer in 2014, when I was only 13 years old. Back then, a simple google search barely resulted in anything for EHE. Treatments were "best guess" and most doctors never heard of EHE. The EHE Foundation was created in 2015 and we have made profound progress in EHE research in the last 7+ years. Money raised this Giving Tuesday directly impacts every single EHE patient, including me. Donations will help fund promising EHE research by funding the 2024 Research Grants Program. This gives us all hope to live in a world where EHE is easily diagnosed and treatable. I am in my last year in nursing school and engaged to be married to Ethan next summer. I want to keep our research momentum moving forward more than ever.

I was diagnosed with EHE, a one-in-a-million rare cancer, in 2011, and I was lucky that I was a candidate for a liver resection to remove my largest tumor. Not all patients are so

Step 4: Proof-read your page. Check your page to ensure your images are clear, videos work (if applicable), there are no errors, and it states what money raised on Giving Tuesday will fund (The EHE Foundation’s 2024 Research Grants Program) and why that is important to you. You can always make edits by clicking the edit page link on the top right (if you are logged in).

Step 5: Share your fundraiser! You can use the Copy Link button or the Share This Page button to help spread the word!

A Note from Maggie Cameron

I was diagnosed with EHE, a one-in-a-million rare cancer, in 2011, and I was lucky that I was a candidate for a liver resection to remove my largest tumor. Not all patients are so lucky. Some require chemotherapy or organ transplants, and others don't have viable treatment options at all. Please consider a donation to fund critically needed research to find treatment options and eventually a cure for EHE. This rare disease is unpredictable, but we are learning more and more as the science behind EHE is studied. Your contribution accelerates research and provides hope to patients like me.

Recent Donations

No donations yet. Be the first!

By donating to The EHE Foundation during this giving season, you will be sharing our vision: a world where EHE, a one-in-a-million rare cancer, is easily diagnosed and treatable. Our mission is to find treatments and a cure for this rare cancer by advancing research and driving collaboration between patients, researchers, and clinicians.

Giving Tuesday is a global movement to celebrate and encourage giving after Thanksgiving, Black Friday, and Cyber Monday. We will DOUBLE your gift! The EHE Foundation's Board of Directors will personally match donations up to a total of $75,000 on Tuesday, Nov 28th. Our goal of $100,000 in donations will support EHE research, such as the 2024 Research Grants Program, and will impact every single person diagnosed with this one-in-a-million cancer.

You can trust that your contribution will go a long way in continuing our forward momentum in funding research for EHE.
